

Student Leadership Programs

Last Modified on 12/09/2019 5:40 pm EST

The Student Leadership Programs Office offers programs and activities designed to help students integrate their co-curricular leadership experiences with personal and academic success during the collegiate experience. conferences, informational programs, retreats, and related training events directed at University-recognized student organizations and individual students are offered. Partnerships with other campus departments and external partners provide a forum for addressing a broad cross-section of student leadership development needs and for engaging local and regional community stakeholders in dynamic linkages tied to the University's mission and core values. The Student Leadership Programs Office is located in the Holbrook Student Union.
