

Tutoring On-Campus and Online

Last Modified on 05/28/2025 10:17 am CDT

McNeese has several tutoring options available on campus and online to assist students.

Encourage students to contact you for help outside of class - Many students will miss the obvious and the best source for help, the course instructor. Include contact information in your course syllabi so students can schedule appointment times with you.

Free Online Tutoring - Students create an account to access free online tutoring provided by the State Library of Louisiana and powered by Tutor.com, a service of The Princeton Review. In addition to live tutors, students can also use the Write Tutor Drop-off Essay Review service for help with written assignments and research papers or Drop-off a Math question. Student begin by selecting the "Start Now" button from the Homework Louisiana home page to create an account and login. Once logged in, they select Get Tutor Now to connect to a live tutor, or they can scroll down the page to select other tutoring resources and services.
